IN MEMORY

This is dedicated to our brothers and sisters, our fellow Americans and World Citizens, who perished through acts of terror throughout the world. Our prayers are with their spirits and their families.

May our prayers and meditations from our hearts uplift their families.

“May their souls be bound up in the bond of Life Eternal.”

From the:

Rabbis, Cantors, Board of Directors, Synagogue Staff, Volunteers and Congregants of

ALL PEOPLES SYNAGOGUE

To find God means to find the way.....without end.

Martin Buber

YIZKOR “IN MEMORIAM”

Yizkor literally means, “May God remember”. Our departed ones were loved in their lifetime, and are not separated from us at their passing.

Yizkor is an awe-inspiring holy tradition that Jews from all around the world observe with fervor. It is prayer service in honor of our loved ones who have departed this life. The Yizkor service is conducted four times a year: Yom Kippur, Sh’mini Atzeret, the last day of Passover, and the 2nd day of Shavuoth.

Each of these days, special prayers are recited in the Synagogue for the departed members of their family. It is the sacred teaching of our Sages of old that the effect of these prayers goes far beyond our own time and place.

On Yizkor day, we honor and pay tribute to the memory of our dear departed ones, and we even feel closer to them. They are gone physically, but not forgotten and live on spiritually. They live on in our hearts. All that was good in their lives, in their deeds and their values, we resolve to continue to practice in our lives.

YOM KIPPUR

“The memory of the righteous remains for a blessing.”

TEFILAT HA LEV
PRAYER FROM THE HEART

“Dear God, help us to believe with a real conviction that physical death cannot and will not terminate the everlasting existence of the soul.”

YISKOR MEMORIAL SERVICE

Prayer in memory of a Father

O heavenly God, remember the soul of my dear father whom I recall in this solemn hour. I remember with esteem the affection and kindness with which he counseled and guided me. May I ever uphold the noble heritage he transmitted to me so that through me, his aspirations shall be fulfilled. May his soul be bound up in the bonds of eternal life and his memory forever be a blessing. Amen.

Prayer in memory of a Mother

O heavenly God, remember the soul of my beloved mother whom I recall in this solemn hour. I remember with deep reverence and affection the solicitude with which she tended and watched over me, ever mindful of my welfare, ever anxious for my happiness. Many were the sacrifices she made in order to ennoble my heart and instruct my mind. May her soul be bound up in the bonds of eternal life and her memory forever be a blessing. Amen.

Prayer in memory of a Husband

Prayer in memory of a child

O merciful God, Giver of life, You have recalled what is Your own, and have taken him (her) into Your loving care and keeping. Though my heart still grieves, may I, who have known the joys of parenthood, bring love and cheer into the lives of others. I pray that the soul of my dearly beloved child be bound up in the bond of eternal life, together with the souls of all the righteous that are in Your keeping.

Prayer in memory of a brother or sister

O merciful God, I fondly recollect the happy years spent together, sharing the love and traditions of our home and family. Death claimed you too soon, and removed you too early from those who loved you. Though You have called him (her) back, O God, I shall always hold sacred memories of his (her) kindness and sincerity, love and devotion. O Lord, grant that the recollections of his (her) life provide an incentive to righteous living. I place my trust in You who are the source of all life and my strength in time of sorrow.

Though a link has been severed from our family chain, help me, O God, to be more closely united with those dear ones who remain. May the soul of my beloved brother (sister) be bound up in the bond of eternal life together with the souls of all the righteous that are in Your keeping. Amen.

Prayer in memory of those who have touched our lives

May God remember the souls of our brethren, martyrs of our peoples, who gave their lives for the sanctification of God's name. In their memory do I pledge remembrance. May their bravery, dedication and purity be reflected in our lives. May their souls be bound up in the bond of life. And may they rest eternally in dignity and peace. Amen.

Prayer in memory of fellow Congregants

We lovingly recall the members of our congregation who have passed away since we gathered in this sanctuary on last Yom Kippur. They have a special place in our hearts. We pray this day that all who have sustained the loss of loved ones in the year gone by be granted comfort and strength.

Exalted, compassionate God, comfort the bereaved families of this congregation. Help all of us to perpetuate the worthy values in the lives of those no longer with us, whose names we respectfully recall.

(names are read)

May their memory endure as a blessing. And let us say: Amen.

EL MOLEH RACHAMIM

DEAR GOD FULL OF COMPASSION

O God of mercy, who dwells on high, grant undisturbed tranquility before Your divine presence, in the exalted heights, reserved for the good and pure whose light shines forth as the brightness of heaven; grant it to the soul of:

(name of departed)

who has departed his (her) life, and in whose memory love is offered. Oh God of Mercy, shelter him (her) under the shadow of Your wings, and may his (her) soul be bound up in the bond of eternal life. God is his (her) inheritance. May he (she) rest in peace in his (her) resting place, and let us say, Amen.

אדוני מה אדם ותדעהו, בן אנוש ותחשבהו.
 אדם להבל דמה, ימיו כצל עובר.
 בבקר יציץ וחלף, לערב ימולל ויבש.
 תשב אנוש עד דכא, ותאמר שובו בני
 אדם. שובה אדוני עד מתי, והנחם על
 עבדיך.

There is a time for everything,
 There is a time for all things under the sun:

A time to be born and a time to die,
 A time to laugh and a time to cry,

A time to dance and a time to mourn,
 A time to seek and time to lose,

A time to forget and a time to remember.
 This day sacred convocation we remember those who gave us life.

This day we remember those who enriched our life with love and with Beauty, with kindness and compassion, and compassion, with thoughtfulness and understanding.

This day we renew the bonds that bind us to those who have gone the way of all the earth.

As we reflect upon those whose memory moves us this day, we seek Consolation, and the strength and the insight born of faith.

Tender as father with his children,
 The Lord is merciful with worshipers.

God knows how we are fashioned:
 God remembers that we are dust.

The days of humankind are as grass:
 We flourish as a flower in the field.

The wind passes over it and it is gone,
 And no one can recognize where it grew.

But the Lord's compassion for worshipers,
 God's righteousness to children's children,
 Remain, age after age, unchanging.

Three score and ten our years may number,
 Four score years if granted the vigor.

Laden with trouble and travail,
 Life quickly passes, it flies away.

Teach us to use all of our days, O Lord,
 That we may attain a heart of wisdom.

Grant us of your love in the morning,
 That we may joyously sing all our days.

שיויתי אדוני לנגדי תמיד, כי ממני בל אמוט לכן
 שמח ליבי ויגל כבודי, אף בשרי ישכון לבטח.

When I stray from you, O Lord, my life is as death:
 But when I cleave you, even in death I have life.

You embrace the souls of the living and the dead.

The earth inherits that which perishes.

But only the dust returns to dust:
 The soul, which is God's, is immortal.

The Lord has compassion for all creatures.

God has planted eternity within our souls,
 Granting us a share in unending life.
 God redeems our life from the grave.

During our brief life on earth God gives us choices.

We can cherish hopes, embrace values and perform deeds which death cannot destroy.

May we all be charitable in deed and in thought, in memory of those we love who walk the earth no longer.

May we live unselfishly, in truth and love and peace, so that we will be remembered as a blessing, as we this day lovingly remember those whose lives endure as a blessing.

Our generations are bound to each other as children now remember their parents. Love is strong as death as husbands and wives now remember their mates, as parents now remember their children. Memory conquers death's dominion as we now remember our brothers and sisters, grandparents and other relatives and friends.

The death of those we now remember are fond memories in our lives. But we are grateful for the gift of their lives. And we are strengthened by the blessings which they left us, by precious memories which comfort and sustain us as we recall them this day.

We shall not fear the summons of death; we shall remember those who have gone before us, and those who will come after us! "Alas for those who cannot sing, but die with all their music in them."

Let us treasure the time we have, and resolve to use it well, counting each moment precious - a chance to apprehend some truth, to experience some beauty, to conquer some evil, to relieve some suffering, to love and be loved, to achieve something of lasting worth.

Help us, Lord, to fulfill the promise that is in each of us, and so to conduct ourselves that, generations hence, it will be true to say of us: the world is better, for a brief space, they lived in it.

PSALM XXIII

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want;
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul;
He guideth me in straight paths for His Name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil,
For Thou art with me;
Thy rod and Thy staff, they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou hast anointed my head with oil, my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Amen

KADDISH EXPLANATION

While the Kaddish is recited in memory of the departed, it contains no reference to death.

Rather it is an avowal made in the midst of our sorrow that God is just, though we do not always comprehend God's ways. When death seems to overwhelm us, negating life, the Kaddish renews our faith in the worthwhileness of life. Through the Kaddish, we publicly manifest our desire and intention to assume the relation to the Jewish community which our parents had in their lifetime. Continuing the chain of tradition that binds generation to generation, we express our undying faith in God's love and justice, and pray that God will speed the day when God's love shall finally be established and God's peace pervade the world.

Mourner's Kaddish Translation

Magnified and sanctified be God's great name in the world God has created according to God's will. May God establish peace during your life and during your days, and during the life of all the house of Israel and all the world, speedily and at a near time and let us say, Amen.

Let God's great name be blessed for ever and to all eternity.

Blessed, praised and glorified, exalted, extolled and honored, magnified and lauded be the name of the Holy One, blessed be God; though God be high above all the blessings and hymns, praises and consolations, which are recited in the world; and let us say, Amen.

May there be abundant peace from the heavens, and life for us and for all Israel; and let us say, Amen.

May God who makes peace in the heavens, make peace for us and all Israel, and let us say, Amen.

O-men:

Strange is our situation here on earth. Each of us comes for a short visit, not knowing why, yet sometimes seeming to divine a purpose. From the standpoint of daily life, however, there is one thing we know.

We are here for the sake of others. Above all for those upon whose smile and well being our own happiness depends, and also for the countless unknown souls with whose fate we are connected by a bond of sympathy.

Many times a day I realize how much my own outer and inner life is built upon the labors of my fellow men, both living and dead, and how earnestly I must exert myself in order to give in return as much as I have received.

“Tzedakah Box” during these High Holy Days Services

“There are moments when we stand in the very presence of the Divine, face to face with God. A Bar/t Mitzvah is such a moment, as one enters into a profound covenant relationship with God.”

"In life, everyone is called by three names: the one which his/her parents give, the one which other people call him/her, and the one which he/she earns for him/herself.

The most important name is the one which is earned."
